Student Support and Community Standards
What is Community Standards?

- Addressing non-academic conduct under the University of Missouri Standard of Conduct (CRR 200.010) by students or student organizations.
- Educating student and student organizations on the expectations and role of being in our community.
- Providing developmental opportunities.
- Assisting students and student organizations in developing skills and knowledge for continued success.
Things to Consider

- Non – academic misconduct
- Forgery or Furnishing False Information
- Class disruption or obstruction
- Threats
- Time, Place, and Manner
- Alcohol or Drugs
- Failure to Comply
- Technology misusage
- If you’re not sure – we are happy to consult.
Life of a Referral

• Refer non–academic misconduct using our online form.
  • The CRRs state that those made aware of violations shall report them.

• Information is reviewed by Student Support and Community Standards

• Initial Meeting with Student

• Determination made of positional violations

• Offer of an Informal Disposition for resolution
  • Responsible Student Action Protocol

• Completion of developmental outcomes or other requirements
Questions?